

COOKING:

„SELF-GROWN FRUITS & VEGETABLES”

Short description:

The Jaz Belvedere in South Sinai, Egypt, has installed an own garden for the organic cultivation of herbs, fruits and vegetables. These products are used in the hotel kitchen to prepare the food offered to the guests. This method of cultivation ensures a continuous good quality of the products, saves natural resources, which would have been necessary for transportation and packaging, and helps to support the local cuisine.
